

IACET makes MyTraining a quality support system for learning

WHAT IT IS

International Accreditors for Continuing Education and Training (IACET) is a worldwide organization focused on ensuring that adult learners receive top-quality training.

HOW IT WORKS

IACET provides policies, processes, templates and tools designed to deliver best-in-class experiences.

WHO'S INVOLVED

Emerson worked with instructional design professionals worldwide to gain IACET accreditation and ensure excellence in the learning provided through MyTraining.

WHY IT MATTERS

By adhering to IACET standards, MyTraining from Emerson delivers the same high-quality training regardless of where the courses are taught.

The official standard for continuing education and training

IACET developed the original continuing education credit (CEU) more than 50 years ago. IACET-accredited training can be offered with or without CEUs.
